

A Crafting Limerick

by Sharon Gullikson

There once was a crafter, you see,
Who strived to make others happy,
With stamps, ink and stencils,
And sometimes colored pencils,
She created floral beauty.

There once was a crafter on trend,
Who considered paper a friend,
She continued to buy,
Off the shelves it would fly,
But PLEASE don't ask her to lend!

There's a company called Altenew,
For 6 years it grew and grew,
Now crafters abound,
With great products they've found,
And oh, I have quite a few!"
